

Three strategies for humanizing learning

Circular arrangement of the three strategies for humanizing learning. This includes equity, diversity, and inclusion (represented by an icon with three differently patterned circles within a larger circle), learning is a social process prone to errors/mistakes (represented by an icon of three people with a question mark above them), and the costs/benefits of the online medium (represented by a computer screen icon which contains a plus and minus sign).

Circular arrangement of the three strategies for humanizing learning. This includes equity, diversity, and inclusion