

Welcome to Module 7, “Virtual Volunteering”. In this module we will learn about the evolution and practice of volunteering in a virtual or online context.

Topics covered in this module include ways to engage and support volunteers at a distance, the benefits of virtual volunteering, as well as various programs and software for use in practice.

This investigation will reveal just how organizations who pioneer and adapt to virtual volunteering will reap the benefits and the rewards that serve their missions well.