

Grading Multilingual Students Comprehension Check

Determine if the following statements are True (T) or False (F)

1. English Language Learners are a homogeneous group.
2. English Language Learners can struggle with many of the same language challenges that other learners do.
3. Language learning is a long process and each learner may be at a different stage.
4. Some learners are familiar with grammatical constructs in English and will appreciate specific feedback.
5. It is helpful to mark every single language error in a paper.
6. Cultural differences in writing can affect organization and should be taken into account when grading.
7. Knowledge of formal and informal register can play a large role in writing success.
8. Offering opportunities for revision can be very helpful in the writing process for English Language Learners (and all learners) in your courses.

Answers:

1. F
2. T
3. T
4. T
5. F
6. T
7. T
8. F

Seneca

 HUMBER

ecampus
Ontario