

Rubric Knowledge: Self-Check

Choose the correct statement from the following pairs.

1.
 - a. Rubrics are primarily to help instructors grade more quickly.
 - b. Rubrics provide multiple benefits for both instructors and learners.

2.
 - a. Holistic rubrics provide a quick way to grade an overall piece of work.
 - b. Holistic rubrics provide specific, targeted feedback to the learner.

3.
 - a. Analytic rubrics give learners a clear picture of exactly where they succeeded and where they have more work to do.
 - b. Analytic rubrics are quick to make.

4.
 - a. Single-point rubrics put no limits on how learners might excel.
 - b. Single-point rubrics do not require much writing on the instructor's part.

5.
 - a. Co-constructing rubrics has shown no benefits to learners.
 - b. Co-constructing rubrics can help learners to actively engage with the assessment process

