

Four Corners Organizer

For each of the items below, identify

- Historical Significance
- How it connects to human rights
- How it connects to Canada
- How it connects to you

Apartheid – system of separating people by the colour of their skin in South Africa from 1948-1994	John Diefenbaker – Prime Minister of Canada from 1957-1963 who was a strong supporter of human rights everywhere
Canadian Bill of Rights – a law passed in 1960 identifying rights that every Canadian is entitled to	Commonwealth of Nations – association of countries focussed on upholding democracy, human rights, peace and security, tolerance and respect, and other related measures

Experts Organizer

Working collaboratively with your group members, collect information using this organizer on your assigned topic. When the organizer is complete, prepare a presentation to the class including a poster using the chart paper provided.

Your Topic: Apartheid in South Africa Canadian Bill of Rights
 Commonwealth of Nations John Diefenbaker

Group Members: _____

Key Dates: _____

Top 3 Facts:

- _____
- _____
- _____

Top 3 Effects:

- _____
- _____
- _____

Summary (2-3 sentences): _____

Also include on your presentation the answers to the Post-It Note questions AND include on your chart paper:

- Location Map (except Bill of Rights)
- Photos

Summary of Learning Stations

Learning Station	Three Key Learnings
Apartheid	✓ _____ _____
Canadian Bill of Rights	✓ _____ _____
Commonwealth of Nations	✓ _____ _____
	✓ _____ _____

John Diefenbaker	✓ _____ _____
------------------------------------	--------------------------

EXIT CARD
How do you feel John Diefenbaker impacted the society we live in today?

EXIT CARD
How do you feel John Diefenbaker impacted the society we live in today?

EXIT CARD

EXIT CARD

How do you feel John Diefenbaker impacted the society we live in today?

How do you feel John Diefenbaker impacted the society we live in today?