

Sale of the enslaved Panis, named Louise

Page 1

In the presence of Lambert Micoïn Royal Notary In Louisbourg Isle Royale was present Pierre Ruelle Dauteuil esquire, Sr de lamalottière Captain and owner of the St Pierre schooner present in this port, which has hereby voluntarily ceded and returned purely & simply with promises of guarantees, to Sr Jean Seigneur innkeeper of this present city and accepting for his ??? and assignee namely that the Sr de lamalottiere transfers to him the right of mistress (?) he has over a savage Panis named Louise about twenty-five years old who was brought up as a slave in Canada, this Nation being subject to slavery, as it is the use in the said country of Canada The said Louise was handed over to the said Sr De lamalottière in Montreal by the said Sr Louis Mave??? of the said town for the master of the said Louise ~~the Sr De lamalottiere~~ to dispose of by the said Sr De lamalottière as he (wants)? , by means of which he has now handed over to the said Sr.

Page 2

Seigneur the said Louise to serve him in the said capacity of slave and for him to dispose of as he will see good, in recognition the said Sr Seigneur gave to the said De lamalottiere two barrels of red wine from ???? and promises and obliges himself to give him next year at his requisition and as soon as the vessels of France arrive at this port other two barrels of red wine ??? or Bordeaux without distinction.
The Sr Seigneur promises to have Good care of the said Louise like a good master & to maintain her as long as she is at his service in fear of God and in the Apostolic and Roman Catholic religion that she professes, and that he will give her what will be necessary for her sustenance & clothing according to her condition. The parties agreed that in the case of

