

Activity: Creating an Identity Mosaic

Instructions:

Create an identity mosaic that represents the different aspects of who you are. This may include:

- Race
- Gender
- Age
- Religion
- Ability
- Sexual orientation
- Language
- Education
- Family background
- Any other aspects that shape your social identity

This activity is for personal reflection. You do not need to submit anything. Take your time and be honest with yourself. The goal is to better understand how your identities influence your worldview, relationships, and assumptions.
